

Edward Farrington, AIF®

Executive Vice President

Natixis Investment Managers – US Distribution

Biography

Edward Farrington is an Executive Vice President with Natixis Investment Managers. In that role, he leads several multi-channel business units, including the Defined Contribution and personal retirement business. Mr. Farrington was previously based in London where he led global wholesale efforts for the firm, supporting clients throughout Europe, Asia, and the Americas.

Prior to joining Natixis, Mr. Farrington served as national fundraising manager for Fidelity Charitable Services. There, he led fundraising efforts for the nation's largest donor-advised fund. Mr. Farrington also held senior roles in Chicago, San Diego, and Boston with Fidelity Investments. He has more than 20 years of experience in investment management.

Mr. Farrington has a BA in political science from the University of New Hampshire. He is FINRA Series 6, 7, 24 and 66 licensed. Mr. Farrington holds an Accredited Investment Fiduciary® (AIF®) designation and the Chartered Advisor in Philanthropy (CAP) designation. Additionally, he is actively involved in Strong Women, Strong Girls, a Boston-based non-profit focused on eliminating the ambition gap for young women. Mr. Farrington is also a trustee of the Travis Roy Foundation.

Edward Farrington earned the AIF® Designation from the Center for Fiduciary Studies in 2016. The AIF Designation certifies he has specialized knowledge of fiduciary standards of care and their application to the investment management process.

Natixis Investment Managers includes all of the investment management and distribution entities affiliated with Natixis Distribution, L.P. and Natixis Investment Managers S.A.

This material should not be considered a solicitation to buy or an offer to sell any product or service to any person in any jurisdiction where such activity would be unlawful.

im.natixis.com