

Chris Iggo

Chief Investment Officer, Core Investments AXA Investment Managers

2019

Chris Iggo is the Chief Investment Officer (CIO) for Core Investments at AXA Investment Managers (AXA IM). In this role, he brings together the insights of AXA IM's Research, Quant Lab and Responsible Investment teams for the benefit of all portfolio managers across the firm's range of asset classes globally.

Prior to this role, Chris was the Chief Investment Officer for AXA IM's Fixed Income department, as well as the Head of Active Fixed Income, Europe and Asia. In this role, Chris oversaw the investment process globally and was responsible for the management of all active teams in Europe and Asia, including performance and strategy/product development.

Chris initially joined AXA IM as a Senior Strategist in 2008 before his appointment as Fixed Income CIO. He assumed additional responsibility of the European and Asian Fixed Income divisions in 2014.

Prior to joining AXA IM, Chris spent five years as the Head of Strategy at Cazenove Fund Management. Before that, he spent four years at Barclays Capital, first as the Chief US Economist in New York and then as the Chief European Economist. Previously, he spent seven years at Chase Manhattan Bank in London and New York as an Economist and Foreign Exchange Strategist.

Chris holds both a Master's and a Bachelor's degree in Economics from the University of London.
