

Biography

---

Heather H. Myers

Partner, Non-Profit Solutions Team Leader

Heather Myers is a Partner, and Non-Profit Solutions Leader at Aon. In her role, she is responsible for ensuring the firm's non-profit clients and prospects remain informed of key issues impacting the market and have access to innovative solutions to help meet their objectives. Heather is also a member of Aon U.S. Investment Committee and the U.S. Management Committee.

Prior to joining Aon, Heather started in the financial industry in 1989 working in international consulting and fixed income manager research at Russell Investments. Her experience at Russell spans from Head of Multi-Currency Fixed Income Research to Senior Practice Analyst for fixed income and currency to Senior Consultant. During this time, she also was a member of Russell's external hedge fund of fund research practice for advisory clients. In 2008, she assumed the role of Director of Endowment and Foundation Strategy to focus solely on the non-profit sector. Since 2011, as Managing Director, she helped lead the outsourced solutions practiced focused on non-profit organizations.

Heather serves on John T. Gorman Foundation's Investment Committees as well as a non-profit organization's investment committee. She was a member of Whitman College's Investment Committee and Advisory Board. Heather has a B.A. in Political Science & a minor in Japanese Studies from Whitman College. Heather maintains a FINRA Registered Principal Series 24 License, as well as Series 7 and 63 Licenses.