

Thomas J Kennelly III;

Managing Director, Head of Investment Strategy — Global Fiduciary Solutions

Tom and his team are responsible for the analysis, design and development of custom Strategic Asset Allocation portfolios and oversight of liability driven investment solutions, dynamic de-risking strategies, derivative overlay/ hedging solutions and multi-asset allocation strategies for ISG clients. Tom and members of his team are also the lead Investment Strategists and Portfolio Managers for our Fiduciary Advisory and OCIO Solutions clients. Tom has over 25 years of experience in investment portfolio management and asset-liability management. Previously, he was a Senior Consultant at Lynch & Associates, where he advised corporations in the area of post-retirement, non-qualified plan funding and hedging strategies. Prior to that, he was a Senior Managing Director in the BankBoston Global Treasury Asset - Liability Management Group responsible for portfolio management and an asset-liability hedging strategies for the Bank Investment Portfolio. Tom earned a Masters of Business Administration degree from Bentley University with a concentration in Finance and a Bachelors of Arts Degree from Merrimack College with a concentration in Finance.