

Bob Kendall is the Head of DWS Group, Americas, overseeing all aspects of the strategic business growth and development in the U.S. He is also the regional relationship representative with the independent fund boards and regulators. Bob is a member of the DWS's Executive Board and also holds the role of Head of Client Coverage for the Americas, overseeing distribution and marketing strategy for the franchise in the region.